FOREWORD

The task to which we have dedicated ourselves in the pages that follow is not to be thought of lightly, nor has it been assumed by us that it was one of little responsibility. For to us has been given the sacred privilege of recording for ourselves and posterity a complete episode in the life of a great institution, of enthroning upon the pedestal of time a statue to the measureless joys of youth and the incalculable benefits of a High School life. To our brothers in the bonds of Carver who have gone on before these pages must re-awaken in your memories which are at once, bitter and sweet, happy and sad. To those of us who yet remain within these sacred portals—they must bring the realization that we are heirs to a great fortune which is immune alike to the ravages of time and the avarice of man. To you who must come after us—may they serve to instill in your hearts that love for our school that must characterize the life of every true Carverite.

OUR PRINCIPAL

Mr. Hill,

DEDICATION

In grateful admission, sincere appreciation for her loyalty in our behalf, we, the members of the class of 1950, dedicate the 1950 edition of the Yellow Jacket to Miss O. L. Hall.

"Farewell Carver"

Sing a song of Carver
Our alma mater brave and true
We'll carry aloft our banner bold
Our own blue and gold
Honor we today the school to whom
Our praise is due
Sing we of Carver our alma mater true.
Our loved, our honored, our most respectful school!
With honest pride, we scorn each friendly end
Our time has come, and we must go
We hate to leave behind us a loving
School "Dear Carver High."

CLASS HISTORY

The preceding years have been joyful and exciting for the senior class of Carver High School. We have awes, thoughts, bothers and blurred images advanced into a sophisticated mind. Now that we know life as it is and dream of our future, we are now ready to follow in the paths of old Carver graduates.

We entered high school just beginning to realize what it really means to do our best. Our dreams were as they are now, of the future and what would become of us if we advanced farther in life. Though we have taken a long journey, it seems to us now that it has been a short while since we started. We have had our fun and experiences all of which served to educate us and show us the way to establish ourselves as men and women.

In our freshman year many of our members were participating in various activities, such as, the Glee Club, the Dramatics club and athletics.

As sophomores we were represented in athletics by Harvard Hairston, Otis Massey, Donald Matthews, Frank O'Neal, Hubert Caldwell for the football team. Harold McClure, James Durham, Robert Steele and Augusta Martin were stars on the basketball team.

Our Junior year we were very anxious to attend our first Junior and Senior Prom. This year our class had become better acquainted with the organizations and activities of the school. Arthur Payne, John Martin, Carnell Landingham, Camilla Lash, Mary Willia, Hubert Caldwell, Henry Hairston, Denoris Cloud, and Veronica Douglas were Thespians. Mary Williams was crowned Miss Carver High School, Wilhelmina Black won first place in the oratorical contest. Samuel Stimpson, Lorraine Thomas, Arthur Payne, John Martin, Perry Lee Means, Mildred Kimbrough, William Shouse, Peggy Hairston, Virginia Caldwell, Jimmy Crump and Nathaniel McIwain played in our schol band. This class was represented in the Glee Club and the Dramatic club, with thirty representatives.

It is impossible for any one of us to tell or give any idea of the career of this class, but I think I voice the sentiments of each and everyone when I say it has been wonderful.

To our Principal, Mr. Hill, we say thanks. Thanks for correcting us when we were wrong and taking us into consideration our feelings, ideas, wants and fancies, for now we see the part you have played in helping us stay on our tracks and kept us from falling along the wayside.

To our individual instructors I might say thanks. Thanks for giving us your suggestions when they were needed and for taking part in our joys and especially our griefs.

In closing it is my pleasure to wish those who follow us much success, in behalf of the class of nineteen hundred and fifty.

SCHOOL SONG

Tune: The Rosary

As we leave thee dear school behind,
We'll miss thee more and more each day;
Our happy days will soon be o'er
Dear Carver High,
Dear Carver High,
The time has come for us to part
We'll leave you with an aching heart
Although we cannot tarry here,
But you we dearly love!
Old memories will linger on
Your name we'll praise for ever more
We strived each day, and tried our best to learn
We'll say good bye, dear school
We'll say good bye.

Frances Miller

CLASS PROPHECY

Let us look through the arch and see those of 1960 that we knew in 1950. Some of them, perhaps, thought that they would never see such a triumphant and prosperous future.

It's June 18th., 1960 and I decided I would like to take a vacation. My first stop was to be as Kusler Air Force Base where I visited a friend. Later we decided to visit the hospital and see another friend.

We were admitted in the hospital by two doctors, whom I recognized to be James Houser and Donald Matthews. While going down the hall to our friend's room, we saw the head nurse, Mary Williams. Then later we heard calls for several nurses on different floors. Jean Lamb, Violet Brooks, and Annie Patton were wanted on the fourth floor, while Anna Shouse, Emma Latern and Perry Means were wanted on the fifth floor. Visiting hour was coming to a close, so we had to be on our way.

On our way back, we saw a collision of two cars. It was just luck that Hazel Porter, Anna Sprinkle, Catherine Phillips, Veronica Douglas, Betty Taylor and Thressa Correll were off duty that afternoon and had started downtown to shop. They administered First Aid until McIllwain came in his ambulance.

The following week, I decided I would go downtown shopping. In one of the shops I had a dress fitted by Virginia Caldwell. We chatted about our high school days and we planned a date for the following evening to go sight-seeing.

Later that evening we went to see Rosa Johnson. After tucking the baby in she entertained us the rest of the evening.

On Wednesday afternoon, I was invited to a luncheon consisting of doctors and lawyers. I recognized two of the lawyers as James Robinson and John Martin. They said their office was only two blocks down from Arthur Payne and Carnell Landingham.

My vacation had ended at Kusler Air Force Base, so my next stop was at Detroit, Michigan where I ran across Queen E. McIntosh. She had started to work downtown where she was a dress designer.

Later that afternoon she took me over on the campus of Wayne University. I was introduced to Franklin Robinson, the president of the college. We visited a few of the classrooms after looking around the campus. I found Barbara Caudle, Barbara Shore, and Virginia Kimbrough as English instructors. Then we went to the cafeteria to buy a sandwich, and found Peggy Hairston as the dietitian. We had planned to attend a movie later that evening, so we had to be on our way.

We went to "The Downtown Paradise", for the late show. Lorraine Thomas sang a beautiful opera solo. The performance was closed with a trumpet solo by Samuel Stimpson. Everyone seemed to be in a rust. And I found they were getting autographs.

My vacation was coming to a close, so my last stop was in Paris, Kentucky. My first stop was to find a room. I went to the Hotel Ambassador. I went to the desk, and there I found Denoris Cloud and Camilla Lash acting as his secretary. They sent me to the desk of information. There I was supplied with all the necessary information by Frances Miller.

On Saturday afternoon we went to the football game being played between Kentucky State and Clark College, of Atlanta. Harold McClure, Harvard Hairston, and Otis Massey really played their parts. Frank O'Neal and Hubert Caldwell made two touchdowns in the last quarter to win the game.

Pattie Last was crowned "Miss Kentucky State", with Ruby Moses, Margaret Shouse, and Deloris Black as her attendants.

The next day was Sunday, and it was time for my vacation to end. Now I must get back and be fresh and ready for my job Monday morning. For Charles Buie and Carnell Landingham are always there at 8:00 sharp.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the graduating class of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty of Carver High, in the city of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, being of sound minds have assembled here for the purpose of stating our last will and testament.

Since we have tried to be honest, as well as just and generous in our distribution of the many gifts which we now possess, we have finally reached our decisions. Therefore, we hereby give these possessions to certain designated persons whose name shall be recorded herein. We sincerely hope that those who receive them will accept them as sacred tokens from those who have gone before.

To Mr. Hill, our beloved principal we leave the privilege of running the school where we left off, with sincere wishes that he will do a better job than we did.

To Miss Alexander and Mr. Forbes, our sponsors we leave a few gray hairs and our sincere appreciation, which they deserve for those sleepless nights spent worrying about us.

To the teachers of Carver High we leave our thanks for their efforts to reform us. We are indebted to them for everything we know, though perhaps we shouldn't mention such a trifle.

To the Juniors, we leave our many Senior privileges received for good behavior.

To the Student body, we leave our position, both honored and dishonored, also our splendid grades.

The Seniors leave to the school, a New Carver High.

To Carlet Spease, Norman Allen wills his height.

Daisy Bell Venson wills her friendliness to Evelyn Byrd.

Carnell Landingham wills his position as President of the Dramatic Club to Leroy Moore.

Wilhelmenia Black wills her ability to wear bobby sox to Ella Tinsley and her speaking ability to Martha Gary, and teeth to Frank Fleming.

Denoris Cloud wills to A. J. Hairston his typing ability, and Jasper Powell his Dramatic ability.

Lorraine Thomas wills her talent to Lucy Norment and her eyes to Blondella Seegers.

To Lillian Lumpkin Frances Miller wills her ability to wear socks, and to Georgia Conrad her legs.

To Jerry Martin, William Shouse wills his height, and to Charles Eller his ability to play the big bass drum.

James Houser wills to Leon Randleman his Complexion and to Carlet Spease his handsomeness. Make use of it because you may need it before you marry.

Peran Glenn wills his ability to smile to Benjamin Smith.

Otis Massey wills his half back spot on the football squad to Vincent Settlers.

To Lillian Lumpkin, Annie Patton wills her hair and legs.

Ruby M. Moses wills her ability to sing to Evelyn Byrd and her quietness to Alberta Powell.

Harold McClure wills his position as quarter-back to James Herman.

Harvard Hairston wills his football equipment to Earnest Howie and his Co-Captain to Evon Watson.

Donald Matthews wills his physique to Frank Fleming and his ability to drive a bus to Jerry Martin.

THE ART OF DRESSING

Hi girls, just a few scars to put you fashion-wise. The "Know-how" where your clothes are concerned will win you much admiration throughout this year and others to come. No matter how the style runs, they will always be of value to you. You may know them, but let them be a reminder of knowledge you have learned as girls all want that. However, we do not want you dressed and make yourselves conspicuous. Dress these trips should be the occasion and doesn't take the time. No! A high school in most cases allows a style that should be:

1. Neatness: what; neatness; cleanliness about you.
2. Coming to school a girl should be dressed simple. Skirts and sweaters are usually the high school girl's choice. Sport clothes are used as a rule for school wear.
3. Some girls like costume jewelry. Some forms of costume jewelry:

Richard L. Phillips	90	ago
atherine Harley	90	15. D.
William Carter	90	16. 11
Barbara O. Spear	90
A. Naomi Combs	90
5. Modestine Harper
26. La Verne Harper

THE NEW CARVER HIGH SCHOOL

The New Carver High School has already been started. It is located on Mickey Mill Road. The new building is being prepared.

SUSIE JANE, THE GIRL WHO WOULDN'T LISTEN

On East Eighth Street there lived a girl who was fourteen years old. Susie Jane was her name. She was very mischievous and had lots of friends. Her parents were very strict.

STUDENT COUNCIL

We are all proud to be back in school after a joyous Christmas. We are going to start the New Year off by keeping a clean school year of 1950. The student council has passed some new resolutions as a group we will do much for every student and most of all we are some.

RESPECT

One thing more essential than self-happiness than self-respect is a very important individual's personal-respect. It may be achieved by doing what one knows to do. The lack of it may be a failure. Respect is not dependent on the attitude of others but on the attitude of the man himself. It is the source of mental peace and to which every man is entitled. It is the satisfaction of his fellowmen. It is the consideration of his fellowmen. It is the consideration of his fellowmen. It is the consideration of his fellowmen.

Don't write on school walls or the building. We are starting a cleanup campaign next month so let all join in with a clean spirit and keep our school clean.
